- An exquisitely designed treasury of over 300 spirit-provoking prayers, Canyon Road: A Book of Prayer offers a striking array of possibilities to stimulate the spiritual and creative life. With its pristine introductions to sixteen types of prayer, Canyon Road offers experiential guidance for anyone exploring Christian spirituality or seeking divine inspiration.
- Drawing on her work as a spiritual guide, Kari Kristina Reeves, “a modern-day psalmist,” welcomes her readers into a moving literary experience that powerfully and practically equips them to exercise their voice in prayer. In her debut book, Reeves displays the expressive range of a virtuoso, moving effortlessly between short, quiet prayers that can be spoken in a single breath and expansive, elaborate articulations of the human spirit’s deepest longings. These heartfelt prayers, which are spoken in diverse genres, styles and languages, demonstrate how to deal with universal struggles such as healing, forgiveness, temptation, and betrayal.
- Purchase of the nearly 500-page hardcover edition of Canyon Road includes complimentary access to the digital e-book and to Canyon Road: The Gallery, an online collaborative space where readers can view the work of others and submit their own creations.
- Debut author Kari Kristina Reeves is a spiritual guide and writer who has worked at Entertainment Weekly; ESI Design, one of the world’s foremost experiential design firms; and Christ Church Santa Fe, where she served as Director of Christian Spirituality and Art. A professionally-trained ballet dancer, she holds a Master of Divinity from Covenant Theological Seminary and a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of Georgia.

This is a remarkable book...apart from the Book of Psalms, this is the most helpful and moving collection of prayers that I have ever read, and I will return to it over and over again for my own personal use. Like the psalms themselves, these prayers are the 'best thoughts in the best language.'
